

Software Integration

Kontron announces a comprehensive suite of professional software development and integration services to complement the company's hardware product portfolio. Kontron's professional services include: custom software design; wide variety of software capabilities (embedded application development and porting, board support packages, custom device drivers, BIOS and firmware, and more); software environment expertise (all varieties of standard and embedded Windows and Linux, QNX, Solaris, proprietary RTOS, and more); custom hardware design services (from PCB design to turnkey platform solutions); hardware architecture expertise (X86, XScale, PowerPC, MIPS 32-64, SH3-4, and ARM).

Kontron

Source URL (retrieved on 03/05/2015 - 10:24pm):

<http://www.wirelessdesignmag.com/product-releases/2005/02/software-integration>